

MERRY CHRISTMAS

It is great to be home from Africa and here in the states for the Holidays. Ring Christmas bells, merrily ring... from the team of sacrificial servants in the Kingdom in Swaziland, South Africa, and across the Southern Tier of the dark continent, the light of Jesus Christ is shining because you helped the Global team to share their powerful LTI (Leadership Training Institute) in Mbabane this fall. New centers across Africa will be launched because you cared enough to send us to help train workers. Tell all the world Jesus is King

Oh Come all Ye Faithful ... from 30 adult students and over 100 AIDS infected and affected children in the care of Swaziland Teen Challenge, we say, "thank you." They will have food, care and the covering of God's love this Christmas because Teen Challenge homes are making peace on earth a reality for them...Oh Come let us adore Him.

From those whose lives have been touched in outreach this year, from the Royal family in Swaziland, to workers in Scotland, Russia, Poland, Serbia and Israel . . . Shalom!

Wise men still seek Him. With your help the Global Teen Challenge team is raising up workers for the harvest around the world.

God's richest blessings to all of you from the entire Gillott family and all of those who will be spending their first Christmas with a new realization of the gift that God gave to us through his Son. We wish you a very Merry Christmas.

Royal Concert

Two Queens lounge with my princess, Cathy as they enjoy music of Khulula

Presenting CDs to two of the Queens, Emakhosikati LaMatsebula and Inkhosikati Lambikizai (who was filled with the Holy Sprit during last year's tour.) It was our first opportunity to pray with Queen LaMatsebula who is a key leader among the Lamatza of the Royal family. Pray for King Mswati III and all 13 wives.

The Royal Concert for the King's wives to debut Khulula's Broken Chains CD garnered major media coverage including this front page article in The Swazi Observer, the largest newspaper in the Kingdom

Inkhosikati Lambikizai enjoyed the CD so much that she invited Cathy and I back to the palace that Thursday and we had opportunity to minister to her and a number of palace staff.

Recording Swaziland REJOICE!

A major goal of this trip was to digitally record a debut Gospel CD for the Southern Tier African Continental Choir, Khulula (Siswati for "Set Free").

We made that commitment when we helped to launch the team last year. Battling mosquito's, one man who was rushed to hospital with Cerebral Malaria, steaming heat and even a forest fire which roared within 25 feet of the compound they worked like troopers to complete the job.

The recording of the Gospel CD went so well, that we recorded a number of additional songs in order to release a second exciting collection of contemporary and traditional Siswati worship and praise music.

You can order your copy by calling us a 757-728-0347 or e-mailing us at Bernstuff@aol.com. Order a CD in time for Christmas. Give a gift that gives back and keeps us with GTC at the front lines for the children.

JASON

Jason is the director of the Khulula team. A South African National, talented keyboard player and staff member at the Piet Retief Center, some years ago he stood before the Judge facing 6 years in prison for grand theft. After encountering Christ in a real way, he is no longer a taker, but a giver. As an able minister of the gospel, pray for his gifting as a Psalmist.

He has a wonderful talent for worship and may be used by local missionaries to help with new church plants in 2004.
