

Day of Prayer

We held the day of prayer every two monthly at the Teen Challenge Center. This prayer movement is to join with other prayer networks in Cambodia. As this is not only for the Teen Challenge in leading the prayer network in Takeo, but also to invite other local churches and Christian NGOs who are actively involved in that area to be part of this prayer network. We strongly believe that prayer movement is part of our core works. We believe that each beneficiary in our care will not only be healed from physical body, but also from spiritual bondages. We asked the Lord of Heaven and Earth and of all to help, to love, to care for, to provide and to heal our beneficiaries from such addictions and spiritual bondages. We never forget what the Lord Jesus has shown the model of prayer. We prayed the Lord's prayer over our work, our partners, local authorities and our beneficiaries. This an opening month of our new year of the prayer network. We invited one of the prayer network committees to lead us in prayer and preaching the Word of encouragement. The prayer network committee is presently consisting of Teen Challenge, Local AG churches, and we hope to have some more be added up into this folk. It is not just only about spiritual muscle growth, but also building relationship with each other within the network and how we can help each other when someone is stumble or in trouble. We want to support each other and collaborate for the King-

Hope for Cambodian Children

"People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care" - John C. Maxwell. Jesus is never in all circumstances looks down on the poor, particularly children. He welcomed children, He laid hand over children and He protected the benefits of children. This shows us that children are the most important people in our ministry. Therefore, we must protect them from any harmful situations. But some children were left along the way and inadequate care, protection and love. They are so vulnerable to such situations. When they are rescued and placed in the program, physical care, social care and mental care are not enough, but they also need to be cared and to hear the message of hope - Jesus their personal savior of all their needs in life.

Life in the community home

Mei Ouk is 52 year of age. He has 6 children living in Takeo province. Ouk's life was so messed up with so many evil things. He was raised in a Buddhist family since he was a child. He has no role-model, since he was a child in the family. When he grew up and becoming a man of heading the family, he just used all the ways he experienced from his father. He smoked and drank too heavy. And when he got home, he hit his children or his wife to release his anger almost everyday. The neighbors were so fed up with his action.

Life in the Center

The neighbors were living nearby his home raised this issue to the AG local church there and asked that if there was anyone who could help him out with his raged behaviors. So the pastor of the AG church came to him and find some times to counsel him and offered him an information about a program that could help him stay free of this bondage – it is the Teen Challenge Center. So Ouk was interested and was willing to come to the program with the Teen Challenge Center.

After staying for more than 5 months, Ouk's life was tremendously changed by the love of Christ through the staff of Teen Challenge Center. After he processed of the information and the biblical life principles, he was wholeheartedly accepting Jesus Christ as his personal savior.

Ouk said of the Teen Challenge Center, "I could have destroyed my life already and would not be able to hear and receive the message of hope, but I thanked God and the staff of the Teen Challenge Center who gave another chance to taste the life that I've ever experienced before, praised and thanked God for this!"
