Thanked our God for the wonderful grace and mercy for Teen Challenge Cambodia. In the end, Teen Challenge Cambodia has officially opened and inaugurated under the board of directors of TCC and the local authorities in Takeo province. The opening and inauguration went on very well with 20 church pastors from different churches around that area and particularly from New Life Fellowship of Churches and Assemblies of God of Churches. Also, we had more than 10 partnering NGOs attended this ceremony. Hopefully, in the month to come, we will receive more students to be in. The local authorities there are really open to the gospel. "I don't care what kind of background you are coming from, whether you're Muslim, Buddhist or Christian, the thing is that the life of the student is changed and become the productive member of the community, said the Head Department of Social Affair in Takeo province. The delegates took time touring the site of Teen Challenge Center and asking the questions about the program of Teen Challenge. Currently, Teen Challenge Center has the ability to house up to 25 students at this stage and now we have interviewed the students to be in day to day. Teen Challenge Cambodia will work closely with churches and partnering NGOs to bring the positive impact and changes into the life of the students whom we serve. We believe in working together can bring a great positive impact and influence over the society and community to become healthy and prosperous.

Facts about Drug in Cambodia

A total of 1719 illicit drug users were admitted to government-run treatment centers in 2007, an increase of 57.7% clients compared with 2006. The rise in admission was seen in all provinces and facilities, with the exception of Battambang, which experienced a significant decline compared with 2006. Yama and crystal meth were the problem drugs for which most clients entered treatment (81.0%), followed by glue (9.7%) and heroin

(1.9%). A number of patients were also admitted for the used of alcohol (5.9%). Approximately 85% of admission were assessed to be drug dependent. More than two-thirds of admissions were between the age of 16-25, and most were either students or unemployed.

Number of problem illicit drug users according to UNAIDS estimate (projected) 46,300.

Staff Training

Teen Challenge Cambodia, we have recruited 5 staff whom we called them Teacher/Counselor, 2 cooks and 2 Security guards for the program of Teen Challenge Center there. They are really strong in the Christian faith and come from that local area, where it is easy for them not to worry about their family and the kids and they have the pas-are quite new in such a job they are in with TCC; therefore, we have to train them well, giving them the materials and tools so that they will be able to gear up the ministry more effectively. The best way to learn is when we have met and experienced the problems along the way and willing to continue on for the solutions sion s to see the lives of the students are changed. However, they

Staff are learning about Drug and how to work drug addicts

Teen Challenge Center

In the book of Matthew 6 verses one through 4, Jesus teaches about giving to the needy that many times when we make our giving to the needy, we should keep it in private and secret and only the father who knows of this and he will reward you. God really wants us to give it to him first and he will make the rest of that proportion more than we expect. Some people are afraid of what they give to God and they are afraid of the shortage for tomorrow. But God really wants us to sow seeds first and he will perform miraculously and bless us abundantly. He doesn't care how much we have and giving to him, but he cares how much our heart is. It is like a son giving his hand to the his father when the son was in the danger and the father never be silent to what was happening to his son, but in stead he will do something to help out the son to get rid of the situation. One of the biblical principles in the bible and it is well known for many Christians is in the book of Malachi 3:10 that God wants us to test him in this area of giving and he will absolutely do something that we cannot think of. The word of God says if you sow the seeds for today, you will reap the huge harvest for tomorrow!
